Make our World Go Around

Are you looking for a way to get involved in the community?
Join us for Christmas Around the World 2008!

Christmas is just around the corner and we are gearing up for a great holiday season and the 2008 Noel Acadien au Village at Acadian Village with its first ever theme, Christmas Around the World. Noel Acadien au Village is one of the largest Christmas light displays in the South and it's right here in Lafayette! This magnificent festival of lights at the historic Acadian Village highlights the holiday season with family entertainment, caroling, food, holiday cheer, and much more. This event was created to raise funds to support programs at LARC which serves individuals with developmental disabilities. Please visit www.lafayettelarc.org for information more on LARC's services.

This is a large event run by 20-30 volunteers nightly, and our program would not happen without dedicated volunteers and community support. We encourage your civic groups, churches, Pokeno buddies, friends, and families to sign up for an unforgettable Christmas experience.
